

CERTIFICATE III INDIVIDUAL SUPPORT

CHC33021

NO
COST

Build a career in the growing healthcare sector with our Certificate III in Individual Support. This 20-week course prepares you for a rewarding role in Disability and Aged Care. The program includes a mandatory 120-hour work placement to ensure hands-on experience.

This course is delivered by Registered Training Organisation (RTO) Designer Life (Code 32502), with wrap-around support provided by Multicultural Families Organisation. Designer Life will deliver all training and assessment and issue all awards for successfully complete students for CHC33021 Certificate III Individual Support.

Scan to Register

More information:
mfo.org.au/employment-and-training

DATES

Intake 1: 27th January 2026
Intake 2: 26th February 2026

LOCATION

MFO Office
79B Scarborough St, Southport

CLASS DAYS

Intake 1: Mondays and Tuesdays
Intake 2: Wednesdays and Thursdays

This course is open to Australian citizens, New Zealand citizens, permanent residents, and most temporary visa holders. Entry requirements: Blue Card (and/or), Disability Worker Screening (and/or), Federal Police Check.

This Skilling Queenslanders for Work project is proudly funded by the Queensland Government.

SQW@MFO.ORG.AU

07 5571 0381 | 0426 636 904

FOLLOW US

CERTIFICATE III INDIVIDUAL SUPPORT

CHC33021

NO
COST

GET SKILLED

Students will complete a range of core and elective units, and must successfully complete 120 hours of industry work placement to be awarded their qualification. Sample*:

Units:

Follow safe work practices for direct client care

Work legally and ethically

Work with diverse people

Communicate and work in health or community services

Recognise healthy body systems

Apply basic principles and practices of infection prevention and control

Provide individualised support

Facilitate the empowerment of people receiving support

Support independence and wellbeing

Support community participation and social inclusion

Work effectively in disability support

Provide first aid

Work with people with mental health issues

Support relationships with carer and family

Contribute to ongoing skills development using a strengths-based approach

*Units may vary

GET HIRED

Completing the Certificate III in Individual Support opens the door to meaningful employment in one of Australia's fastest-growing sectors. Whether you are passionate about working with the elderly, supporting people with disabilities, or providing care in the community, this qualification equips you with the practical skills and knowledge needed to begin your journey.

Graduates of this course can pursue roles such as Aged Care Worker, Disability Support Worker, Personal Care Assistant, or Home Care Assistant. With a high demand for qualified support workers across Australia, you will make a real difference in people's lives.

SQW@MFO.ORG.AU

07 5571 0381 | 0426 636 904

FOLLOW US

